

The prophetic word of the Lord challenges God's people to prioritize God's priorities. (1)

God's #1 priority is being glorified by His people in THIS house...is it yours? (2-6)

Make being generous to God through His church your #1 priority. (7-11)

Questions for Discussion:

What are the various priorities that dominate the lives of people in our culture today?

To what degree do you think these same priorities are held by many Christians as well?

What are the priorities by which God is glorified?

How do you see the local church fitting into these priorities?

What are your priorities? How well do you believe they are aligned with God's priorities?

Are there aspects of your life needing to be prioritized? If so, what? How?

What are people today conversing about?

What dominates the checkbook of most Coloradoans?

What fills the calendars of the average person today?

What conclusions can you make about the priorities of people from the above observations?

How would the conversations, checkbooks and calendars of Christians differ from non-Christians?

What would greater generosity concerning these three areas look like for you as a Christian?
