

Who qualifies you to be a disciple-maker? (1-2)

- Jesus Christ – through His very life in you

What qualifies you to engage in disciple making? (3-4)

- Grateful heart
- Clear-Conscience before God
- Fervent Prayer Life
- Affection and Love for God's people

What qualifies effective disciple making relationships? (5-7)

- Spend time investing in people who genuinely hunger for God
- Encourage people to passionately serve Jesus with their unique giftedness
- Exhort people to confidently stay engaged in their serving Jesus

Questions for Discussion:

What are some of the excuses Christians might give for not engaging in making disciples?

Are any of these excuses ones you personally use? If so, which ones?

Are they valid excuses? If so, what can you do to correct these matters this week?

Are there circumstances in your life this week that make it hard for you to have a grateful heart?

If so, what are these circumstances? Be sure to allow time for your group members to pray for you.

Why do some Christians try to keep secrets from God and others?

What are some reasons for someone holding secrets to come clean?

What are some of the dangers of one not coming clean?

Knowing we all have something to offer someone, who might God be leading you to invest in?

Why do you believe God is leading you toward them in particular as opposed to someone else?

What would you have to offer them, and how would you invest in them?