

You have been entrusted with opportunities to serve the Lord (14-15)

You must choose how to steward those responsibilities (16-18)

You will give an account for how you invest what you have been given (19-30)

Questions for Discussion:

How do you determine your gifts, talents and abilities?

What are your gifts, talents and abilities?

How are you currently using them?

To what degree are you using them for the glory of God versus your own selfish ambition?

Confess any part of your selfish ambition to God and ask him to purify your heart.

What are some sinful ways Christians can compare their gifting with others?

What makes such comparisons sinful?

Are there other Christians whose gifting you are tempted to compare yourself with?

Do you have a sinful attitude concerning the gifting of someone you need to confess and repent of?

What will it look like to repent of it this week?

Are there gifts, talents and abilities that you are not presently using?

If so, which ones?

Why are you not presently using them?

What would it look like for you to begin to use them this week?