

We endure without fatigue by...

Knowing we are not alone.

Releasing sin and hindrances to God.

Taking steps of faith where God is calling you.

Looking to the person and work of Jesus Christ.

Questions for Discussion:

Read Hebrews 11:-40.

Which of the “witnesses” in this “Hall of Faith” most encourage you? Why?

What kinds of sin can “cling so closely” or “enslave” us as Christians?

What will not free us from such sins?

How do we experience “freedom” from “bondage” to such sins?

Is there something new you believe God is calling you personally to do?

If so, what is it?

What would it look like for you to step out in faith this week?

Have you stumbled, fallen down or dropped out of “the race?”

If so, what would it look like for you to get up and get back in the race this week?

What aspects of Jesus Christ’s example can encourage those growing weary or fainthearted?

Which of these aspects most encourage you personally to keep on keeping on?