Three lifelines:

- 1. Stay a sponge, not a rock. (V25-26)
- 2. Remember mercy, reject entitlement. (V27)
- 3. Follow Jesus, run from religion. (V28-30)

Questions for Discussion:

Pastor Huguley gave us five signs you are wise your own eyes:

1. Believe you have the market cornered on theology.
2. You are critical of those who live differently than you.
3. Quick with answers, but slow to listen.
4. You can't be corrected. Self-justify.
5. You always identify with the hero in the Scriptures.

Have you observed others with any of these signs?

Are you guilty of any of these signs yourself?

If so, what will it look like for you to repent?

Have you observed others with an attitude of spiritual entitlement?

Are you guilty of such an attitude?

If so, what will it look like for you to repent?

Have you observed others weary from striving through legalism or pursuits other than Jesus?

Are you guilty of any of these pursuits yourself?

If so, what will it look like for you to repent?
