

The power of God is...

- Hindered by unbelief
- Released by faith
- Nourished by prayer

The humility of God is...

- Obedient to heavenly authority
- Submissive to human authority

Questions for Discussion:

1. What aspects of life can people be tempted not to trust God with because they think they can handle it themselves?
Why can this be a concern for people who have been Christians for some time?
Are there aspects of your life you need to trust God for right now?
If so, what is it, and what will it look like for you to trust Him?
2. How would you explain the difference between believing God can do something and believing God will do it?
Have you ever had to trust God for something when there was no going back?
If so, what was it? What did God do?
3. What are some areas of life Christians are tempted to not obey heavenly authority (God's Word)?
What are some areas of life Christians are tempted to not obey human authority?
What are some explanations (not excuses!) people give for their actions?
Are there areas of your life where you are not obeying heavenly and/or human authority?
If so, what is it? What do you need to do to change this week?
