

God demonstrates His faithfulness to His promises by...

- 1. Completely driving out all of His enemies.
- 2. Providing for His people individually and collectively in the exact way He promised.
- 3. Working through His covenant people to accomplish His work.

Questions for Discussion:

Is there a battle you are fighting right now? If so, what's happening?

What promises of God have encouraged you amidst the battle?

How can we pray for you?

How has God faithfully provided for you personally in the past?

How long did it take?

What part did you have to play for it to happen?

What do you sense God wants to do through you personally?

What's He stirring in your heart for our church collectively?

How can Caleb's example encourage you to step out for God?
