

“NOW I TELL YOU BEFORE IT COMES, THAT WHEN IT DOES COME TO PASS, YOU MAY BELIEVE I AM (HE).” JOHN 13:19

1. How do you view your position in relation to the Word of God?

- a. Are you unacquainted or estranged from it?
- b. Do you treat the Word of God like a buddy who can offer good advice but does not have any authority over you?
- c. Or do you place yourself under the authority of the Word?

2. The word “canon” comes from a Greek word meaning “rule,” “measuring stick,” or “rod.” Eric shared 30 different Old Testament prophecies that can be used to “measure” whether or not Jesus Christ is who He says He is. The result: proof that He is, in fact, who He says He is.

- a. Which of New Testament fulfillments most amaze you or inspire you to deeper faith?
- b. Which of the New Testament fulfillments are the most likely targets for Satan to use to attack your faith?

Accountability question: Do you believe fully in the Word of God? What challenges you most about fully placing yourself under the authority of the Word?
