

When you prioritize obedience, you...

- Respond with immediate congruent actions to the Word of the Lord in the fear of the Lord. (12)
- Rightly expect to be encouraged by the ongoing presence of the Lord. (13-15)
- What does prioritizing obedience look like for us? for You?

Questions for Discussion:

What are some responses we can have to the will of the Lord other than immediate obedience?

What can compel us to choose immediate obedience?

Is there a step of obedience the Lord is nudging you to take - right now? If so, what is it?

Have you ever experienced God's "manifest presence?"

If so, what happened?

What are some reasons people are not always generous?

What are some reasons to be generous?

Which of these reasons are most compelling to you?

Are you willing to go before the Lord and ask Him how generous you can be?
